Assets: If assets are needed to meet the minimum income requirement: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Evidence of assets with a cash value that equals at least five times the difference between your total household income and 125 percent of the poverty guideline for your household size. b. What assets can be used? Any type of asset can be used if it is readily convertible to cash within a year. Liquid assets, such as savings deposits, stocks, bonds, and certificates of deposit will be viewed most favorably because they would be most accessible for the support of sponsored immigrants. Other assets, such as property, may also be acceptable if they can be sold within a year. c. What evidence of assets is required? Evidence establishing ownership and the value and location of assets is needed. Additionally, information on any liens and liabilities relating to these assets must be provided. For bank accounts, bank statements for the most recent 12 months, or a letter from the bank stating the date the account was opened, a history of deposits and withdrawals for the past year, and the current balance are needed.
